

PIZZOS TO SPAIN

July – August 2024

Dear Praying Brethren,

We are excited to share some updates from the past two months. Your prayers and support have constantly encouraged us, and we are amazed to see how God continues to work in our lives and ministry.

First, we are thrilled to announce the birth of our daughter, Anamelia Marie, on August 5th! The c-section went smoothly, and both Anna and Anamelia are doing well. We cannot thank you enough for your prayers leading up to the surgery and for Anna's recovery. There were no complications, and Anna was back on her feet much faster than we were expecting. Of course, she is still recovering but doing far better than we had hoped. The credit goes to the Lord for answering our prayers; it has been evident that you all are praying for us.

We were also blessed by my mom's visit during this time. Her help was invaluable as we adjusted to life with a newborn, and her presence greatly comforted and encouraged our family. Besides being an immense help with all the logistics of caring for the house and the kids, we thoroughly enjoyed spending quality time together and showing her some of the area's sights. Her flights all went reasonably well, and we are thankful for your prayers for her visit with us.

Shortly before Anamelia was born, Anna completed her intermediate Spanish course. This represents hundreds of hours of classroom instruction, all spent while caring for the home and family and preparing for a baby. I want to publicly thank the Lord for her and recognize her effort in bettering her ability to communicate with the people here. This represents a significant milestone with much work and time behind it. Thank you for praying for our language studies, and please continue to remember us in prayer, as there is always more to learn.

Recently, the Lord opened the door to move to an apartment in Castellar del Vallès, where the church we have been working with is located. We had been praying and looking for a place in this town for several months, but we never had peace about any of the places we looked at. Although the timing is a bit complicated (as I am writing this letter, I am surrounded by boxes and half-dismantled furniture), the whole situation was clearly of the Lord, and we are grateful for His provision. We are sure that this move will not only help our family but will also help our efforts to minister here.

In closing, we have an update on Rosa's cancer treatment. Later this month, she is scheduled for an important surgery that should be the last significant intervention in her treatment. She and her husband, Moises, are in good spirits and are trusting the Lord throughout the entire process. Still, your prayers are needed and valued.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support. We pray that the Lord will bless you in your labors for Him.

In His Service,

Justin, Anna, Catalina, Justus, & Anamelia Pizzo
